From the Crown of the Outlands **********

Unto the good populace of the Outlands, We, Artan and Tara, King and Queen of the Outlands, send greetings:

First, we would like to thank the wonderful people of the Barony of Dragonsspine for hosting Our coronation. We had a wonderful time and the site was just beautiful. Also, We would like to thank these gracious people for their generous donation to the kingdom coffers, and for the sunshade they donated to the kingdom regalia.

Second, We want to encourage people to keep up their memberships and to encourage new members to send in their memberships. There is good news from the seneschal, the kingdom is above its minimum membership to be a kingdom, so let's keep up our membership levels and try to achieve new heights as a kingdom. One reminder, no awards will be given to people unless they are members of the Society.

Third, there will be an inter-kingdom event the second week of October (Oct. 10-12, AS XXII) between the Outlands, Ansteorra and Calontir. This event will have lots of fighting, bardic and all other sorts of entertainment. It will be held somewhere in the eastern Outlands, but the site is not definite at this time. More information will follow in upcoming issues of The Outlandish Herald.

Fourth, the fourth Outlands crown tourney will be held the first weekend in October (Oct. 3-4, AS XXII) in the Shire of Caer Galen. Anyone wanting to enter the crown lists must submit a letter or intent to the Crown by September 30, AS XXII. More information will follow.

Fifth, the Crown of the Outlands is going to the Pennsic War this year. As this will be the first time the Crown of the Outlands will be represented at the war, We would like to have a good showing from the Outlands. Anyone wishing to attend, may contact the Crown for more information about the war.

Last, we still encourage all the populace of the Kingdom who do not yet know us, to please come to introduce yourselves to Us, so We may come to know all of Our subjects better.

Know that We remain in service to the Outlands,

Artan Tara

The Crown plans to attend the following events:

June 27-28 3-1/2 Shires to the Wind Oasis Event

July 4-5 Inter-Kingdom Peace, Meridies

July 10-12 Moonlight Tourney, Caer Mithin Halle

August 15-18 Pennsic War, East

August 22 Mid-East Workshop and Revel, al-Barran

The Fault Line

Greetings unto the populace of the Outlands.

It has been some time since my last communique to you through these pages. I have decided to try to write a regular column called "THE FAULT LINE." This is due in part to the old story -- it's the seneschal's fault. That, and sometimes it feels like the earth is coming out from below me.

Anyway, we have had a number of changes in the Kingdom offices. These being the Arts and Sciences, from Hon. Lady Elizabeth of Freemountain to Lady Beatrix von Wertenberg; the White Stag Principal Herald, from Mistress Keridwen of Montrose to Master Erasimierz Waspanieski (Grayraven); the Earl Marshal, from Sir Jochen von Balduinseck to Duke Sir Christopher of Hoghton, and the Chirurgeon, from Lady Tara av Asgaard to m'lord Blaise de St. Thibaut. Quite a number of changes. I would like to thank all of those who recently resigned for their long and outstanding service to the Outlands. I welcome these new officers, and hope they continue this fine tradition of service.

Since we have both a bunch of new officers and a new Crown, some change is to be expected. I hope this change is beneficial for all of you. Should there be some problems, please contact either the officer that is initiating the change or myself. I encourage all of you to support these new officers as you have som commendably supported the ones in the past.

My warrant as Kingdom Seneschal runs for one more year. I fully expect to serve the remainder of this warrant. It is even possible that I may ask to stay in this office, maybe. This past year has gone by with great haste. The next year will probably be just as fast. This being the case, I am wondering if there is anyone out there who is interested in being Outlands Seneschal. Should you have some interest in this office, please send me a short letter detailing your experience in the SCA.

Of final note, we have been a Kingdom for one year. It was a year that was much smoother than was originally thought possible by even the most optimistic estimates. This could only have happened through the hard work of the populace and the local officers. I would like to thank all of my brethren in the College of Seneschals for all their hard work (and in putting up with me at times).

Should any of you have any questions, comments, or subjects you would like me to address in "THE FAULT LINE," please let me know.

Yours, in service to the Outlands,

Master Giovanni di Sienna, Seneschal

Kingdom of the Outlands

Chirurgeon Speaks

Dear Friends of the Guild,

Just a brief note of thanks to the many who helped make things possible in the hectic flurry that was Grand Outlandish XIV. Specifically:

Major accolades for Lady Shandea of the Citadel, and Lord Saint Moshe for service above and beyond the call of duty. In particular, for missing out on some of the fun and revelling in order to be alert and avialable to those in need. Thanks again, Moshe, for travelling the length of the Known World just to help us out.

Thank you to Lady Merlina for helping out and for "telling me three times" something that I used later.

Thanks also to the journeymen and apprentices who gave of their time to the common good.

My sincere appreciation to those individuals who provided support to the Guild in many ways: Baron Stefan of al-Barran, Lady Adelicia of the same barony, Simon of the Shire of Great River, Lady Leyla of al-Barran, and Lady Susan the Midwife of Arquelle. Also for HRM Tara, for help and advice.

Last, but not least, thanks to the Waterbearers for serving our fighters so well.

I hope to see all of you next year. Until then, I remain

Yours in service,

Blaise de St. Thibaut

Outlands Kingdom Chirurgeon

From the Chronicler

Putting out a newsletter for a kingdom is a very important job. The chronicler is charged with keeping the populace informed of what is going on in his kingdom, as well as representing the kingdom to the rest of the Known World.

It takes a great deal of time, energy and effort to do the job month after month. A chronicler must not only be interested in getting the word out, but getting it out as well as he possibly can. And when he is done, he knows he has performed a valuable service for his fellow SCA members.

If you think you would like to do this service for the Outlands, please write to Sir Raymond the Quiet, c/o Ray Moseley, P.O. Box 35118, Albuquerque NM 87176 for more information.

Workshop Set on Headgear

Ladies of the Outlands, take notice!

The Clothiers of al-Barran Sponsor a Headdress Workshop!

After long hours of confusion and headaches over how to design, shape and construct appropriate headgear, we have gone to a professional and arranged to have a headdress class. The class will be Saturday, July 4, at the Costume Shop (Drama Dept.) of the University of New Mexico, Barony al-Barran.

The class will start at 9 a.m. and last through the day, with a short break for lunch. There will be a fee to cover the cost of base materials and our instructors' time. (Don't worry, it won't be expensive.) The morning will cover the technique of forming buckram and felt for the base, and the rest of the day will be spent building the headdress of your choice. The Clothiers, for example, have chosen Elizabethan and Burgundian headdress, but you are free to choose your own type of headgear.

Please bring as many pictures as you feel necessary of the headdress you intend to build, as well as an alternate, just in case. Also bring the fabric that will match the gown you are making the headdress for, as well as any plumes, veils, jewels, or beads you wish to put on the headdress.

The evening will be a bring-your-own-barbecue revel at Lady Adelicia's home. This is not an official event, nor is period garb required. Arts & Sciences College Planned

Attention A & S Persons

(and all concerned people)

Upcoming this late summer/early autumn there will be a kingdom-level college. At present, the site and exact date are undetermined. However, in order for this to be a successful and representative event, planning must proceed.

What is needed from you, the populace, is input.

Is there a specific class/area of interest you'd like to see?

If you have been to other colleges, was ther something you specifically liked? disliked?

Would you be willing to teach a class in your area of knowledge? what area?

Have you suggestions, interest, surplus energy or material you'd like to donate to this cause?

This event can only be as good as those people who participate. I will serve as an organizer for those of you interested in sharing your skills, knowledge and expertise. I know there is a wealth of talent in this kingdom; I have seen it. Please contact me with your ideas and input.

In Service to the Outlands,

Lord Patrick the Lost

Deputy, Arts&Sciences

College Schedules Grand Offender

Unto the good people of the Grand and Glorious Kingdom of the Outlands, I, Brother Jagonam Poing d'Eclair, the Lord Abbot of the Motheaten Order of St. Golias, send warmest greetings.

I hereby announce that on Sept. 26th and 27th, in the year AS XXII (c.e. 1987), there shall be held at Escondita Lake, in the College of St. Golias, the Fourth Annual GRAND OFFENDER TOURNEY.

Once again the event will be different from the last one, so it should be interesting (or at least offensive). The events are:

Punning, Odd Weapons Toss, Race of Drinks, Bardic events, Auction, Most Offensive Costume, Boffer Tournament, Tent Stuffing, Comedy Limbs, Silliest Hat, Lechery, Quest for the HOLY '?', Wytys Breakfasts of Champions

Grand Offender Feast: This will be held around dusk on Saturday, and the feast menu will be set later.

Opening Court (or patio, if we are without royalty): This will probably start at 12 noon Saturday, conveniently just about the time the event starts.

* Pets must be leashed, NO exceptions

* Unfortunately, I must charge a tax on all who come -- a $4.99 feast fee, and a $2.93 (even less than last year) site fee. Children feast for $2.95 and have a site fee of $.99.

* The site opens Friday at 5 p.m. and closes Sunday at 5 p.m.

* For directions, see map.

Three Hawks Championship Set for August

Watch the fighters hack and slash, and see the fencers prove a point. End the day with a feathery flight at the Three Hawks Champion Tournament.

The incipient Canton of Hawk's Hollow invites one and all to join us on August 15 and 16 for our grand event. The site is located on the beautiful grounds of Camp Genesee, just half an hour west of Denver on I-70. The grounds have plenty of trees for shade, picnic tables, water is available (you may want to bring drinking water, however), and fires are allowed in the fire pits (bring firewood). This is a discreetly wet site, no animals are allowed, but there is a brand new playground for the small ones.

The site fee is $2 per person for the weekend (this is a camping event), and the site opens at 6 p.m. Friday and closes Sunday afternoon at 2. The gate will open around 8 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. during the weekend. If anyone needs to get in or out when the gates are closed, please tell the autocrat (because I have the key).

Now, for the directions to our site (you may need them), take your best route to the Mousetrap (intersection of I-25 and I-70, north of Denver). Head west on I-70 to Exit 254 (about half an hour drive). At the stop sign, take a right and then another immediate right onto the service road (US40). Go 4/10 of a mile and turn left onto the dirt road (look for our signs). Follow the road through the gate to the parking area.

On Saturday at 10 a.m. we will have our opening announcements to begin the day. During that time, we will draw teams of three (a fighter, a fencer and an archer). Each person will compete in their individual event with their score to be added to their teammates' scores for a team total. In the evening, one person from each team will perform at the bardic. Their score will make up the fourth component of the team total. The team with the best score will become the Hawk's Hollow Cahmpions. You need not be a member of a team to compete for the prizes to be given in each individual competition.

We will begin our tourney with rattan fighting, which will be followed by fencing. We will end the day with archery. Remember, this is not only an individual competition, but also a team competition. Each individual will have a fair chance at the wonderful prizes made by the talented hands of milady Scena of Castletown Bearhaven.

If this doesn't keep you busy enough, we will also be providing a throwing board for those interested in learning how to throw a knife or showing off your skill. For the archers, an official IKAC round will be shot. We also encourage anyone interested in doing skill demos (sewing, cooking, art, etc.) to contact the autocrat to arrange for a time and place for your demo. Merchants are welcome!

We will be having a feast at 6 p.m. after all of the day's events end. The feast fee is $3 per person ($1 for littles under 12). our feast will include fresh breads and cheese, salad, soup and roast beast. And, for dessert, we will have fruit and fruit breads. Reservations and fees for the feast will be accepted until August 1. Please send your checks to the feast autocrat made payable to the SCA, Canton of Hawk's Hollow. Early payment of site fees would be much appreciated, but is not required. When sending your checks, please include your Society name, mundane name and what you are paying for -- site, feast or both.

When the light goes away and darkness fills the sky, we will hold the bardic competition. One member from each team must enter the bardic, but the competition is open to anyone else who wishes to entertain us as well. There will be a prize given to the winner of each event (rattan fighting, fencing, archery and bardic) with the winning team receiving an additional prize. Please contact the autocrat so that the evening can be planned for everyone's enjoyment. Music, singing, storytelling, poetry, etc. are welcome.

On Sunday we will have our closing announcements and award prizes to the winners of the events. At that time, names of the three champions of Hawk's Hollow will also be announced.

This is a Girl Scout camp, so please respect the land and help keep it clean. The Canton of Hawk's Hollow is looking forward to having you join us.

Nat'l Chronicler Seeks Replacement

Unto the Gentles of the Known World,

From the Acting Director of Publications:

Greetings!

I am writing to inform you of my search for an immediate successor.

Due to an unforeseen mundane job transfer, I will be unable to continue as Society Chronicler. Therefore, I beseech any interested gentles to apply to the Steward of the Society and the Melinda Sherbring, who is my ombudsman on the board of directors.

The office of Corporate Chronicler/Director of Publications basically involves overseeing the official Society publications (and preparing some of the one-time smaller ones), and acting as coordinator and go-between among kingdom and corporate publications, the Registry, the Treasurer and the board. This is a part-time volunteer position which requires interaction with people inside and outside of the SCA.

If you or anyone you know would like to apply for this position, please call or write today!

In service to the Society,
Eadwina the Fair
Director of Publications (acting)

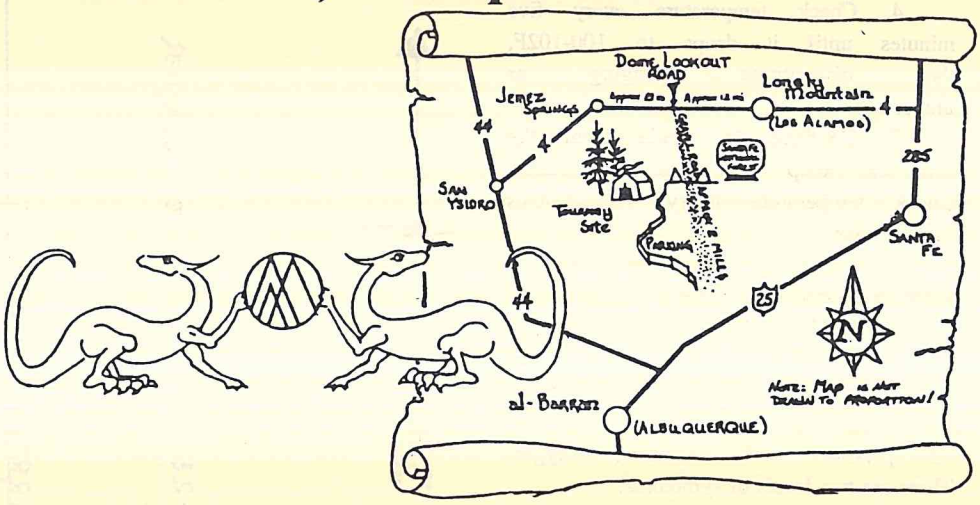
Dun Dragons Need Defender, Companion

Come one, come all! For a relaxing weekend of fun and frivolity in the lush meadow and whispering pines of the old Defender site.

The Shire of Anlieplic Dun is proud to host a games event on the last weekend of July. Alas, because of the high quality of our defenders, we are no longer threatened by dragons. In fact, we are suffering a severe shortage of them! We need a defender and companion for our beleaguered dragons! This job will not be easy. It will require a master gamesman with nimble feet and a cunning mind. Remember, it's not a job -- it's an adventure!! To qualify for this position, the candidate must compete in a variety of games and contests. He/She need not participate in all the contests available but can choose from several games, including (but not limited to) a quest, archery, axe-throwing, "hunkerhausen," rock, fox and geese, backgammon, chess, toasting, telling tall and dragon tales, the "Secret Game" (surprise!), Byzantine Tag and more. There will be a feast, hugging auction and barding on Saturday night.

Because the site is in the mountains, be prepared for cold and possibly rainy weather. Fires may or may not be permitted, depending on weather conditions and dryness (if they are permitted, they must be attended). We will be having quiet hours from midnight to 8 a.m. and during the barding. There will be a feast at about 5:30 on Saturday night, and we will be taking 75 reservations. Feast reservations should be sent to the feast autocrat by July 18. The site is wet.

If you have an idea for a game, or games, that you feel a dragon's companion should know, please let the autocrats know at least two weeks in advance, and we will try to include it.



Site fee: $5 a person for the whole weekend; smalls under 12 free (can be paid in advance or at the site).

Feast fee: $6.50 a person; send reservations in by July 18.

Checks: Checks should be payable to "The Shire of Anlieplic Dun" and sent to William the Hermit.

EVENT AUTOCRATS: William the Hermit and Maria del Gato, P.O. Box 926, Los Alamos NM, 505-672-9276.

FEAST AUTOCRATS: Mistress Julia of the Forest, 3153 Villa St., Los Alamos NM 87544, 505-662-3942.

Camping Season Requires Special Health Precautions

From the Chirurgeon

This month I would like to discuss three environmentally-caused ailments that plague us in the SCA today: heat exhaustion, heatstroke and high altitude sickness. I'll describe each and then give the recommended treatment.

HEAT EXHAUSTION

Heat exhaustion occurs when someone who is not used to it is exposed to very hot weather, and/or exerts themselves and does not get enough liquid and salt.

SIGNS & SYMPTOMS

1. Excessive sweating.
2. Skin pale and clammy.
3. May feel sick, dizzy or faint.
4. Pulse rate may become rapid and headache or muscle cramps may develop.
5. Heatstroke may follow.

TREATMENT

1. Move to shade if possible.
2. Have person lie down.
3. Remove armor and loosen or remove clothing.
4. Cool the skin with cool wet cloths applied to forehead, arms and legs.
5. Give water to drink, or (even better) 1 liter (1 qt.) water to which is added 1 teaspoon salt. Do not give salt tablets unless you thoroughly understand how they are used. Salty foods, such as broth, potato chips or pretzels, may be used when the patient doesn't feel nauseous. (Don't forget to give water at the same time!)

HEATSTROKE

Heatstroke usually occurs because of prolonged exposure to very hot conditions. The mechanism in the brain that regulates body temperature stops functioning, and body temperature rises rapidly.

SIGNS & SYMPTOMS

1. High temperature (104F or higher).
2. Skin looks flushed and feels dry and warm.
3. Pulse may be strong and rapid.

TREATMENT

1. THIS IS A LIFE-THREATENING CONDITION. You must take steps to bring the body temperature down immediately!
2. Shade (if possible; don't waste time looking for it).
3. Remove all clothing. Use sponge or cloth soaked in cold water to cool skin. If stream or bath available, immerse person.

4. Check temperature every five minutes until it drops to 100-102F, then discontinue sponging or immersion.

5. Continue to shade from the sun and keep cool and comfortable. Check temperature every 15 minutes for one hour.

6. Get victim to medical attention as soon as possible.

HIGH ALTITUDE SICKNESS

At high altitudes we may experience a number of complaints that are associated with decreased air pressure and decreased oxygen. There are two levels of symptoms.

(Less serious)

SIGNS & SYMPTOMS

1. Tired, breathless and with a hammering headache.

TREATMENT

1. Give extra fluids, carbohydrates, and aspirin for headache.

2. Insist that person avoid heavy exertion, alcohol, tobacco and sedatives.

3. Encourage light activity.

(More serious)

SIGNS & SYMPTOMS

1. As above, also sleeplessness, bluish skintone or irrational behavior.

2. Tightness or gurgling in chest.

3. Loss of consciousness.

TREATMENT

1. Provide open air. Encourage person to breathe deeply.

2. Descend as rapidly as possible to an altitude 2000 to 4000 feet lower. Seek medical care immediately.

Persons with repiratory problems should seek the advice of their doctor before attending high altitude events.

That does it for this month. Next month we'll look at sprains and strains, and what exactly RICE means. Until then, I am

Sensibly yours,

Blaise de St. Thibaut

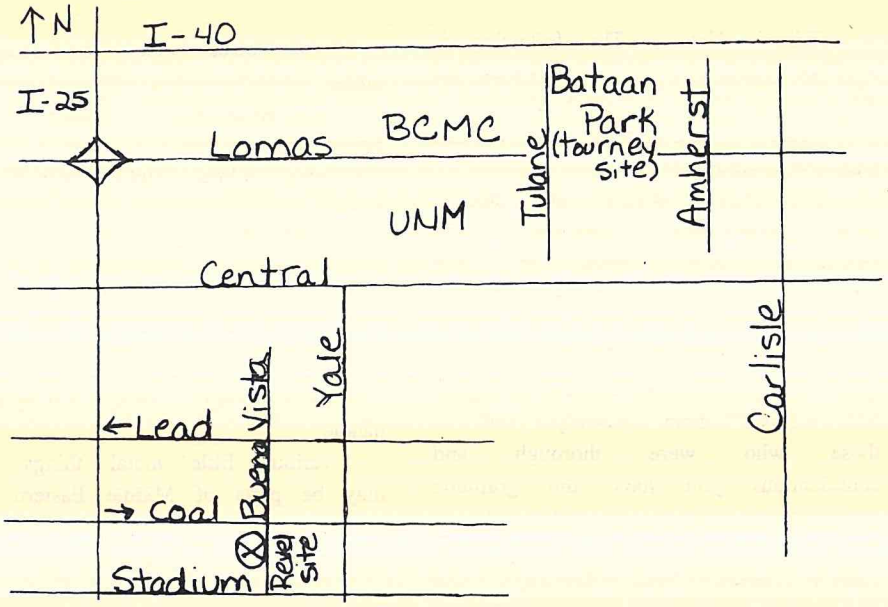
Ir-Revel Event

Greetings! We wish to invite all of you to a tournament and revel to be held September 19, 1987 in the Barony of al-Barran. The event will start around 12 noon.

The tournament will be held in Bataan Park on Lomas and Tulane. It is a plunder tourney, so all entrants to the list are requested to bring an item of plunder. However, to the victor will not go all the spoils as we will have prizes for second and third place, as well as some prizes to be given out at our discretion. Suggestions from fighters as to the running of the lists will be appreciated.

The revel will be held at Heights Community Center (823 Buena Vista Dr. SE) immediately after the tournament. Since this is our first event, we are making this a potluck feast. There will be prizes for the best entree, best side dish and best dessert. There will also be games galore, although we don't know just what yet. We do know there will be chess and backgammon.



This is our first time autocratting, so any suggestions or comments are more than welcome. If you have questions or comments, please contact the autocrats.

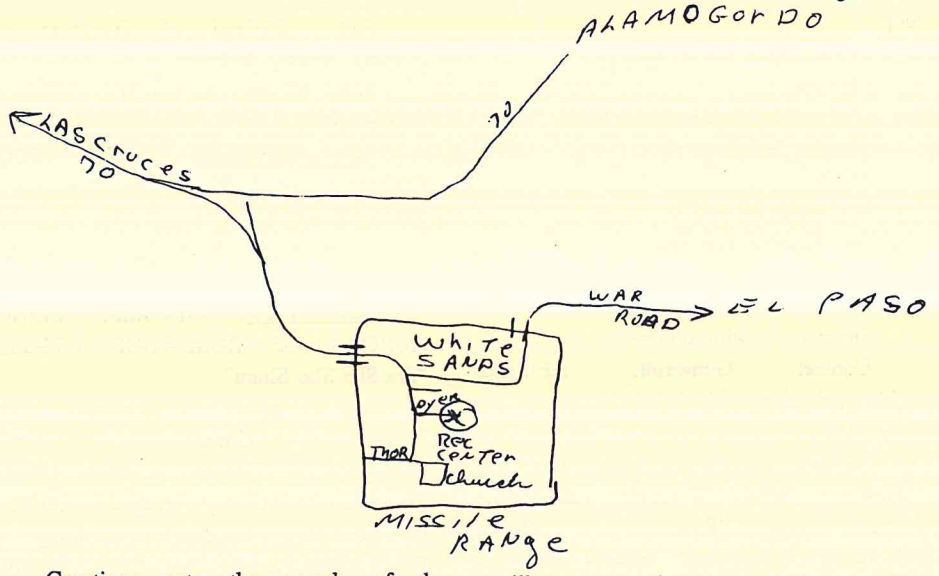
White Mountain to Host Citadel Birthday Celebration



Happy Birthday to the Citadel of the Southern Pass!

Greetings unto the people of the Outlands,

We, of the Shire of White Mountain, are hosting a birthday feast for the Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass Aug. 8 and 9, AS XXII, and would like to invite all to celebrate with us. There will be a tourney (prize) in the morning and workshops during the day. The feast will start at 6 p.m. and last until we are done.

The event is being held at the Countdown Recreation Center at White Sands Missile Range, so no alcohol can be brought in, but we can and will have a bar with beer, wine and mead available. This is a camping event, but as we will be on the lawn, we have access to the kitchen and the showers there.

No pets or firepits.

Children and merchants welcome.

Water is available, and so is crash space.

Please make your reservations early as we are limiting the feast to 75. If I can assist you in any way, just call 505-678-5251 and ask for Lady Maria.

Hope to see you soon.

Feast fee: $8, under 12, $4 and under 5, free.

Outlandish Afterthoughts

(Editor's Note: The following is a compilation of after-the-event information on Grand Outlandish XIV.)

GRAND OUTLANDISH FINAL CLEANUP REPORT

The final inspection and cleanup crew Gunwaldt, AElflaed and Grayraven, who walked the site Tuesday afternoon gathering the last litter and cigarette butts (not too bad on those!). Most of the area was so clean there was no indication anyone had camped there recently, and to those who were thorough and conscientious you have the gratitude of the barony and the Forest Service, in addition to that of the cleanup crews (both Tuesday's and those people who helped Monday afternoon).

The autocrat had forgotten to mention that all firepits should be buried and the rocks scattered. Having now done so to the two dozen and more which remained, he would like to state this for next year now. Firepits should be dismantled.

There was only one serious mess; as there was evidence to indicate it was locals and possible newcomers, details will appear in al-Barran's newsletter only.

LOST AND FOUND - - OUTLANDISH

The worst news is that a Viking-head ring belonging to Leif was found, placed in the lost-and-found, and removed by a person other than Leif. Therefore, it is lost-and-found-and-lost. If you've noticed that someone of your acquaintance has recently "found" such a ring, speak with him please.

BARDIC COMPETITION RESULTS

Twenty-nine entrants from 11 groups in and outside the Outlands graced the bardic competition with their songs, tales, verses and instrumental music on Saturday evening at Grand Outlandish. The rains cleared in time for the building of a glorious fire under a clear, still sky. Nearly 200 people gathered to perform or judge or listen. With seven categories to judge, our volunteer judges (more than 20 of them) did an excellent job of keeping their comments and numbers straight.

Those who have been to other bardic circles agreed with me that this was one of the finest. The crowd was still, alert and appreciative. The performers were well prepared, eager and we heard every word.

At Sunday's court, prizes were presented to the first place winner in each category.

Her (at that time) Royal Highness, Tara, gave goblets to her favorites, Sir Gareth and Mistress AElflaed.

Mistress Beau, the baroness of al-Barran, chose Christian Colter to reward with beads.

Hawk's Hollow Plans Archery Tournament

The Second Annual Saint Sebastian Archery Tournament will be held in the incipient Canton of Hawk's Hollow on July 26, AS XXII.

The site will be the Northglenn H.S. football field.

The competition will be based on the IKAC rules, and scores will be sent in for national competition. There will be the standard three divisions: traditional longbows, crossbows and recurve bows. The trophy for the longbow and recurve has been crafted by m'lady Scena of Castletown Bearhaven. It is a ceramic pitcher with an archery motif.

All persons are invited to come to participate. There will be loaner equipment available for those who wish to try their hand. Bring your own shade pavilions and make a day of the event. There are several places to purchase food within a few blocks.

There is no site fee, but there will be a charge of $1 per round shot. The rounds will begin at 9 a.m. and continue until we are finished.

Waterbearers Give Service

ATTENTION ALL WATERBEARERS!

Rumor has reached us of an upcoming conflict in our kingdom in October. I will be coordinating the waterbearers for this event with help from the Earl Marshal and Kingdom Chirurgeon.

Carrying water is a very fun and rewarding activity. It is vital for the fighters on the field, and they really do appreciate our efforts and show it.

In the interest of safety, we are going to tighten down on water carriers a bit. In order to be on the field, you must: A) Be authorized. This will mean showing a knowledge of fighting and proper safety. B) Wear closed-toe shoes, and C) Have cloth covering on your legs. Pants are recommended for the mobility factor. Although I will not insist, I also strongly recommend a hat or other covering on your head.

I already know many of you who are interested in waterbearing. But, I will need a full list of people from all areas. There will be more information in future issues of the Herald and I will be happy to talk to interested parties on my travels this summer.

If you think this sounds like the job for you, please send your name and address to:
